

FALL 2020 SERIES

Location: Zoom

Time: 7:00 - 8:00 PM EST

Brain Freeze events are public philosophy talks. Everyone is welcome, including but not limited to philosophy undergrads, grads, and faculty. Each event consists of a short (15 minute) presentation followed by discussion.

TOPICS	SPEAKERS	DATES
Reparations	Dr. John Torrey	Sept. 15
Informed Consent	Dr. Tracie Mahaffey	Oct. 13
Meaning in a Life	Dr. Ted Hinchman	Nov. 17

More information?

<https://philosophy.fsu.edu/brain-freeze> (FSU website)

@BrainFreezeFSU (Facebook)

@FSUBrainFreeze (Instagram)

svincent@fsu.edu (email for Dr. Sarah Vincent)

Brain Freeze is sponsored by the FSU Department of Philosophy, in conjunction with our MAP (Minorities and Philosophy) chapter. Our efforts are supported by Lofty Pursuits, and we hope to return to meeting there soon.

