

Minorities and Philosophy at Florida State University 14th Annual Graduate Philosophy Conference

Keynote Speaker

Briana Toole

Assistant Professor of Philosophy, Claremont McKenna College

Friday, March 3rd, 2023

Center for Global Engagement, Room 2400

Program

- 8:00-9:00 Bagels and Coffee
- 9:00-9:05 Conference Opening
Christina Karabiyik, President of FSU's MAP Chapter
- 9:05-9:50 Katherine Vidueira (UC-Riverside)
"Socially Damaged Agency"
- 10:00-10:45 Matthew Hoffman (Indiana)
"Who's Afraid of Adaptive Preference?"
- 10:55-11:40 Anna-Bella Sicilia (Arizona)
"Authority, Inquiry, and Gender Avowals"
- 11:45-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-1:45 Brenden Short (Kent State)
"Merleau-Ponty's Method and Non-Normate Embodiment"
- 1:55-2:40 Francis Kwame Kyamekeh (Tennessee)
"Wittgenstein's Place in the African Conception of Self"
- 2:50-3:35 Najii Wilcox (Memphis)
"The Double Bind of the Black Scholar: How Racial Embodiment Engages with Academia"
- 4:00-5:00 Dr. Briana Toole (Claremont McKenna)
"The Paradox of Resistance"
- Post-Conference Drinks at Oyster City Brewing